Office of Quarter Master Gen'l, } Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 1, 1865.

THE following order has been issued:

HEADQUARTERS, } Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 1, 1865.

GENERAL ORDERS, } No. 1.

I. Under the provisions of the 10th section of the Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1865, entitled "An Act to establish a Bureau for the relief of Freedmen and Refugees," and the 1st section of the Act of Congress, approved July 16, 1866, entitled "An Act to amend an Act to establish a Bureau for the relief of Freedmen and Refugees, and for other purposes," the undersigned is charged with the duty of assuming control of all abandoned property, and property which may have been confiscated, or which may be forfeited or escheated for the benefit of the United States, and of all property which may have been turned over to the United States by any person, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," and of all property which may hereafter be turned over to the United States, or seized by its officers, under the provisions of any Act of Congress, or of any order issued by the President of the United States, or by any officer of the Army or Navy, or any Department of the Government, acting under the authority of the President.

II. Commanding officers of Districts, Sub-Districts, and Posts, will, as soon as practicable, cause to be collected all property which may have been abandoned, or which may have been confiscated, or which may be forfeited or escheated for the benefit of the United States, and all property which may have been turned over to the United States by any person, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," and all property which may hereafter be turned over to the United States, or seized by its officers, under the provisions of any Act of Congress, or of any order issued by the President of the United States, or by any officer of the Army or Navy, or any Department of the Government, acting under the authority of the President.

III. Commanding officers will cause the property to be inventoried, and will turn it over to the Quarter Master General, or to such officer as he may designate to receive it.

IV. All persons having in their possession any property which may have been abandoned, or which may have been confiscated, or which may be forfeited or escheated for the benefit of the United States, and all persons having in their possession any property which may have been turned over to the United States by any person, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," and all property which may hereafter be turned over to the United States, or seized by its officers, under the provisions of any Act of Congress, or of any order issued by the President of the United States, or by any officer of the Army or Navy, or any Department of the Government, acting under the authority of the President, will report the same to the Quarter Master General, or to such officer as he may designate to receive it.

V. All persons having in their possession any property which may have been abandoned, or which may have been confiscated, or which may be forfeited or escheated for the benefit of the United States, and all persons having in their possession any property which may have been turned over to the United States by any person, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," and all property which may hereafter be turned over to the United States, or seized by its officers, under the provisions of any Act of Congress, or of any order issued by the President of the United States, or by any officer of the Army or Navy, or any Department of the Government, acting under the authority of the President, will deliver the same to the Quarter Master General, or to such officer as he may designate to receive it.

VI. Under the provisions of the 10th section of the Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1865, entitled "An Act to establish a Bureau for the relief of Freedmen and Refugees," and the 1st section of the Act of Congress, approved July 16, 1866, entitled "An Act to amend an Act to establish a Bureau for the relief of Freedmen and Refugees, and for other purposes," the undersigned is charged with the duty of assuming control of all abandoned property, and property which may have been confiscated, or which may be forfeited or escheated for the benefit of the United States, and of all property which may have been turned over to the United States by any person, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," and of all property which may hereafter be turned over to the United States, or seized by its officers, under the provisions of any Act of Congress, or of any order issued by the President of the United States, or by any officer of the Army or Navy, or any Department of the Government, acting under the authority of the President.

VII. Commanding officers will cause the property to be inventoried, and will turn it over to the Quarter Master General, or to such officer as he may designate to receive it.

VIII. All persons having in their possession any property which may have been abandoned, or which may have been confiscated, or which may be forfeited or escheated for the benefit of the United States, and all persons having in their possession any property which may have been turned over to the United States by any person, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," and all property which may hereafter be turned over to the United States, or seized by its officers, under the provisions of any Act of Congress, or of any order issued by the President of the United States, or by any officer of the Army or Navy, or any Department of the Government, acting under the authority of the President, will report the same to the Quarter Master General, or to such officer as he may designate to receive it.

IX. All persons having in their possession any property which may have been abandoned, or which may have been confiscated, or which may be forfeited or escheated for the benefit of the United States, and all persons having in their possession any property which may have been turned over to the United States by any person, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," and all property which may hereafter be turned over to the United States, or seized by its officers, under the provisions of any Act of Congress, or of any order issued by the President of the United States, or by any officer of the Army or Navy, or any Department of the Government, acting under the authority of the President, will deliver the same to the Quarter Master General, or to such officer as he may designate to receive it.

X. Under the provisions of the 10th section of the Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1865, entitled "An Act to establish a Bureau for the relief of Freedmen and Refugees," and the 1st section of the Act of Congress, approved July 16, 1866, entitled "An Act to amend an Act to establish a Bureau for the relief of Freedmen and Refugees, and for other purposes," the undersigned is charged with the duty of assuming control of all abandoned property, and property which may have been confiscated, or which may be forfeited or escheated for the benefit of the United States, and of all property which may have been turned over to the United States by any person, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," and of all property which may hereafter be turned over to the United States, or seized by its officers, under the provisions of any Act of Congress, or of any order issued by the President of the United States, or by any officer of the Army or Navy, or any Department of the Government, acting under the authority of the President.

XI. Commanding officers will cause the property to be inventoried, and will turn it over to the Quarter Master General, or to such officer as he may designate to receive it.

XII. All persons having in their possession any property which may have been abandoned, or which may have been confiscated, or which may be forfeited or escheated for the benefit of the United States, and all persons having in their possession any property which may have been turned over to the United States by any person, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," and all property which may hereafter be turned over to the United States, or seized by its officers, under the provisions of any Act of Congress, or of any order issued by the President of the United States, or by any officer of the Army or Navy, or any Department of the Government, acting under the authority of the President, will report the same to the Quarter Master General, or to such officer as he may designate to receive it.
